Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 25 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly cloudy with some fog patches. Brighter in south, west.

Today:
Overcast and misty from Aberdeen to Lossiemouth northwards with some drizzle and fog patches, chiefly around the coasts. Best of the conditions across southern areas of Aberdeenshire and Moray, where sunny spells bring the leading afternoon highs. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Some late sunshine towards Upper Deeside, otherwise turning increasingly cloudy from the northeast with some patchy light rain appearing. Light northerly winds, occasionally freshening across eastern coasts. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
Rather cloudy start, but sunny spells soon increasing on a fine, dry day. However temperatures significantly down from Wednesday, and feeling noticeably cooler around east coasts in brisk northerly breezes. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Settled fine, dry weather dominating the vast majority with plenty of sunshine and light winds. Temperatures not up to the levels of Wednesday, but still significantly above the seasonal averages.
